

the request of prominent people in Kōhala.

Rep. H. W. Wilcox moved the previous question. Carried.

The ayes and nays were taken on the motion to indefinitely postpone the bill with the following result:

Ayes—Cummins, G. Brown, Peter, Widemann, Berger, Müller, Crabbé, Kanhaize, J. M. Horner, W. Y. Horner, Walbridge, Anderson, G. N. Wilcox, C. Brown, Kaneali, Knudsen, Rice—17.

Noes—Spencer, Pua, Phillips, Hind, Baldwin, Lucas, R. W. Wilcox, Rosa, Kaupi, Nawahi, Baker, A. Horner, Kauhokano, Waipūlani, Apiki, Cockett, Halstead, A. S. Wilcox—18.

The report was adopted and the bill passed by engrossment to be read a third time on Wednesday.

Second reading of bill No. 204, an Act relating to the boundaries of the Kingdom.

The committee report was read recommending the indefinite postponement of the bill.

Rep. Brown moved the report be adopted.

Noble Baldwin moved the report be laid on the table to be considered with the bills.

Rep. Brown agreed with the committee on the bill for the Bishop Estate, but not with their recommendations as to bill No. 180, as he did not believe in giving lands to the Crown Commissioners. They recommend certain amendments leaving on some of the lands specified, with which the recommendation that the bill pass. Signed by A. F. Peterson, R. E. Hind, Wm. H. Cornell, J. E. Bush.

Rep. Peacocke moved the report be adopted.

Noble Baldwin moved the report be laid on the table to be considered with the bills.

Rep. Brown agreed with the committee on the bill for the Bishop Estate, but not with their recommendations as to bill No. 180, as he did not believe in giving lands to the Crown Commissioners. They recommend certain amendments leaving on some of the lands specified, with which the recommendation that the bill pass. Signed by A. F. Peterson, R. E. Hind, Wm. H. Cornell, J. E. Bush.

The previous question was put and carried.

The report of the committee was adopted, and the bill indefinitely postponed.

Second reading of bill No. 21, an Act relating to stamp duties.

The report of the Finance Committee was read. They make certain amendments and recommend the passage of the bill as amended.

Minister Brown stated the object of the bill. It was brought in so that people in the outer districts could more easily obtain adhesive stamps.

Rep. Looce moved the report of the committee be adopted.

The motion carried, the bill passed to engrossment to be read a third time on Thursday.

Second reading of an Act to revise, amend and alter the Constitution.

The bill was indefinitely postponed.

Second reading of bill No. 180, an Act relating to the Sunday law.

Rep. Nawahi and Noble McCarthy brought in the bill to keep a promise, but he did not seem to care much about it himself. I move it be indefinitely postponed.

Rep. Kahikina did not think it would be treating the introducer with courtesy to go on with the bill.

A motion to consider the bill was passed.

In suspension of the rules the bill was read briefly.

Rep. H. W. Wilcox moved it pass to engrossment.

Noble Widemann said the application to meet the introducer with courtesy is not practicable in this instance. The bill is to be killed, and we may as well do it now as any time. It will be a surprise to him.

The ayes and nays were called on the motion to indefinitely postpone the bill with the following result:

Ayes—Cummins, G. Brown, Widemann, Berger, Müller, Crabbé, Kanhaize, J. M. Horner, Walbridge, Anderson, G. N. Wilcox, C. Brown, Rosa, Kaupi, Nawahi, Baker, A. Horner, Kauhokano, Waipūlani, Apiki, Cockett, Halstead, A. S. Wilcox—21.

Noes—Spencer, Pua, Phillips, Hind, Baldwin, Lucas, R. W. Wilcox, Rosa, Kaupi, Nawahi, Baker, A. Horner, Kauhokano, Waipūlani, Apiki, Cockett, Halstead, A. S. Wilcox—18.

The bill was indefinitely postponed.

The bill was indefinitely postponed.

Rep. Kahikina and the committee were engaged.

A motion to reconsider was lost.

President Walker appointed the following committee—Pua, Phillips, Cummins, Marques, Lucas, R. W. Wilcox, Rosa, Kaupi, Nawahi, Baker, Kauhokano, Waipūlani, Apiki, Cockett, Halstead, A. S. Wilcox—18.

Rep. Peacocke presented a minority report on the bill for suspending a license for the carrying of firearms, on the passing of bill No. 180, the same day as no progress among officials. The committee made arrangements and recommended the bill pass to engrossment.

Rep. Kahikina presented a majority report from the same committee, recommending the bill be indefinitely postponed.

Rep. Kahikina and the committee were engaged.

</